To Whom It May Concern,

This is to certify that Dr. Md Jamal Uddin, Professor, Department of Statistics, Shahjalal University of Science and Technology (SUST), Sylhet-3114, Bangladesh, is the corresponding author of the manuscript entitled "Digital Connectivity and Mental Health Symptoms Among Women in Bangladesh: A Rural–Urban Perspective", published in Discover Mental Health.

I hereby confirm that this manuscript is based on a student-led research project and was conducted without any external, institutional, governmental, or commercial research funding. Dr. Md Jamal Uddin has not received any dedicated research grant, project funding, or financial support for this manuscript or for its publication. Although Dr. Md Jamal Uddin is serving as the corresponding author, the research was undertaken as a student research project, and no institutional or project funds have been allocated for payment of the Article Processing Charge (APC). There is therefore no available funding source within the research project or the authors' institutional resources that can be used to cover the APC. Given the unfunded nature of this research and the substantial financial burden that the APC would impose, I respectfully request that Discover Mental Health consider granting a full APC waiver for this article to enable its publication without creating financial hardship for the authors involved in this student research project. I certify that the information provided above is accurate and reflects the funding status of this research project.
